DICKINSON LAW THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

The Dickinson Law Review is one of the oldest legal journals in the nation and is the flagship publication of Dickinson Law of the Pennsylvania State University. Published in Carlisle since 1897, the Dickinson Law Review features articles, essays, and book reviews by leading professors, judges, and practitioners from around the country and the world, as well as student-authored comments. Views expressed in the Dickinson Law Review are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the policies or opinions of the Dickinson Law Review, its editorial board, Penn State's Dickinson Law, or The Pennsylvania State University.

Dickinson Law is proud of its four core principles and the way in which the Dickinson Law Review advances those principles. The Dickinson Law Review serves as a tool to advance the law school's scholarly mission, sharing knowledge and wisdom with students, the legal profession, scholars, policy makers, and others, consistent with Penn State's role as a world-class research university. An additional purpose of the Law Review is to provide students at Dickinson Law with opportunities to acquire important lawyering skills. The Dickinson Law Review advances the law school's service mission through its efforts to improve global understanding and the lives and wellbeing of its students and the world in which they will live. The Law Review is also committed to Dickinson Law's fourth core principle – to strive on a daily basis to foster a sense of community and mutual support between and among faculty, students, staff, and those outside the Dickinson Law community.
