Editor's Note

Recently the editors of the Dickinson Law Review became aware that a Comment published in Volume 92 contains substantial material taken from another work without either permission or attribution. In the Comment, Now My Son, You Are a Man: The Judicial Response to Uncounseled Waivers of Miranda Rights by Juveniles in Pennsylvania, 92 DICK. L. REV. 153 (1987), the then student author included significant passages, both in text and footnotes, that were taken nearly verbatim from Barry C. Feld, Criminalizing Juvenile Justice: Rules of Procedure for the Juvenile Court, 69 MINN. L. REV. 141 (1984), without attribution to Professor Feld.

This Editor's Note is intended to inform the profession that the Comment at 92 DICK L. REV. 153 should not be cited as nor understood to be a completely original work. The Dickinson Law Review does not condone plagiarism, and no longer endorses the cited Comment.

The Review reiterates its commitment to provide high-quality, original legal scholarship. We apologize to Professor Feld, The Minnesota Law Review, and to the profession.
